

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT
OF BUNNIE POUNDERS HARVILLE

I, Bunnie Pounders Harville, a widow, being of sound and disposing mind and memory and being over the age of eighteen (18) years and a resident of DeSoto County, Mississippi, do hereby make, publish and declare this instrument to be my Last Will and Testament and do hereby revoke any other Wills or Codicils heretofore made by me.

I.

I hereby direct my Executix to pay all my just debts, which may be probated against my estate, and all my funeral expenses as soon after my death as can conveniently be done.

II.

I do hereby appoint my sister, Dianne Pounders White as Executrix of my Last Will and Testament. My Executrix shall not be required to give bond, inventory, appraisal or accounting to any court or tribunal whatsoever. If Dianne Pounders White should predecease me or choose not to serve, then in that event, I designate my niece Kim White Chamberlin as my Executrix. I also grant to my Executrix all powers normally given to trustees under the Uniform Trustees Powers Law, including the power to sell, mortgage, transfer, convey, lease and dispose of any of my property upon such terms and in such manner and for such prices as she shall deem proper. All of the above powers to be exercised insofar as possible without court order.

III.

I give, devise and bequeath unto my daughter, Jennifer Harville Merritt, all my real property, including my house. In the event Jennifer Harville Merritt shall predecease me, I give, devise and bequeath all my real property, including my house, to her daughter, my granddaughter, Dahlia Naomi Rose Merritt.

IV.

I give, devise and bequeath unto my grandson, Vincent Leonard Hamilton, the watch that belonged to his grandfather, Bennie Harville.

V.

I give, devise and bequeath unto my grandson, William Tyler Hamilton, the diamond ring that belonged to his grandfather, Bennie Harville.

V.

I give, devise and bequeath unto my grand-daughter Dahlia Naomi Rose Merritt, all of my jewelry.

VI.

I give, devise and bequeath unto my daughter Angela Harville Moon, all my remaining personal property, including any cash in my retirement account, not mentioned heretofore.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have signed this Will which consists of two (2) pages on this the 22 day of Dec., 2010.
